Agreement between the property owner (customer) and Essex
Powerlines Corporation for Electrical Distribution Service (EPL)

I, the Customer agree to have EPL electrical distribution equipment (plant) placed in the approximate location shown on the attached layout. EPL is not asking for an easement but simply protection from having to move/remove such works or from compensating the Customer in respect thereof. The Customer and Successors shall keep any structures within safe limits of horizontal and vertical clearances (i.e trees, plants, bushes, plants or landscaping, signs, light standards, islands etc.), according to any standard, The Electrical Safety Code, or any other laws, covenants or regulation in force at the time.

EPL electrical distribution Equipment is on, in, over, under, across, along through the Customer's lands. EPL, our servants, agents and assigns, require free and unobstructed entry and access to the subject lands at all times for any and all persons, vehicles, supplies, equipment and things necessary for or incidental to the purposes of supplying electricity to this location. In the event EPL performs any works or service s on the subject lands, EPL covenants to fill in all excavations and to restore the surface of the subject lands to the same grade level and the same condition as prior to the commencement of any construction or any other subsequent works performed on the subject lands. Notwithstanding any rule of law or equity, and even though the works and materials for these services may become affixed to or annexed to the subject lands, the title to such works and materials shall nevertheless remain with EPL. EPL owns the electrical distribution equipment up to the ownership demarcation point as per our conditions of service.

I the customer agree to the above Terms and Conditions
